

DIED

At the rapids of the Red River, in May last, Nathaniel Cogswell, esquire, in the service of the Revolutionists of New Mexico, and son of the late Judge Cogswell, of Gilmanton.

In East-Haven, mr. Reuben Moulthrop, aged 51, a celebrated artist in wax-work. During 50 years constant application he had brought the art of imitation in wax to astonishing perfection, and he has left some works which are the admiration of the ablest connoisseurs,

In Epping, mr. Benjamin Pidgin, aged 94, formerly of Newburyport.

In this town miss Mary-Ann Bufford, daughter of mr. Henry B. aged 11 y. ; mrs Lucy Jones, aged 37, wife of mr Timothy L. Jones, and daughter of Lt. Jesse Sawyer, of Atkinson ; miss Caroline Walton, aged 23.